An Antietam Battlefield Staff Ride is a powerful tool...

Although today’s battles differ from those of the past, they remain a human endeavor. Antietam Staff Rides explore:

- Military decisions made during the carnage of America’s bloodiest day
- Today’s doctrinal elements as applied in the past
- Applications to winning future battles

Your Staff Ride will be customized for your group’s goals, objectives, and experience level.

Antietam Staff Rides follow the U.S. Army Center of Military History three-phased model of Preliminary Study (Pre-Work), Field Study and Integration. Materials and facilitation provided by NPS certified Antietam Battlefield Guides.

Developed by Veterans: Antietam Battlefield Guides include retired military officers and non-commissioned officers (NCO’s), graduates of the U.S. Army War College, Industrial College of the Army Forces, the Advanced NCO Course, and Battle Staff NCO course.

To book a Staff Ride: Call Antietam Battlefield Museum Store at (301) 432-4329, or AntietamTours@easternnational.org.
